THE AMERICAN FERTILITY ASSOCIATION'S FAMILY MATTERS NY AT STEINER STUDIOS Sunday, October 5, 2008

The American Fertility Association, the nation's leader in fertility/infertility education and advocacy, brings its renowned "Family Matters" conference to the spectacular Steiner Studios on the Brooklyn waterfront on October 5, 2008.

"Family Matters NY" is the place to be if you're confronting challenges to building the family of your dreams. Whether it's compromised fertility, treatment options, third party reproduction, the shifting domestic and international adoption environments or decoding complex reproductive and adoption laws, "Family Matters NY" is designed to help you on the path to parenthood. We feature an all day exhibit hall with over 50 exhibitors in reproductive medicine, adoption, ovum donation and surrogacy, pharmacies, and more.

Over the last 15 years, The AFA's "Family Matters NY" has become an indispensable resource. With its array of unparalleled experts in reproductive medicine, adoption, reproductive and adoption law, psychology, complementary care and allied fields, this day long conference is a one-of-a-kind opportunity to get the information and guidance that's right for you.

Your full-day registration gives you access to lectures, panel discussions and Q+A sessions with the brightest and most creative minds in the family-building arena. "Family Matters NY" offers three separate tracks: Medical Diagnosis and Treatment from Low Tech through Third Party Reproduction, LGBT Family Building Initiatives, and Adoption Options, all tracks are open to everyone; you can attend any session you choose.

Almost as important as the extraordinary education provided, is the support and companionship that runs through "Family Matters NY." Take advantage of the coffee breaks and wine and cheese reception to exchange ideas and information. With breathtaking Manhattan skyline views and the luxurious comfort of this state-of-the-art film and television production center, Steiner Studios creates an exciting and inviting ambience, a place for free-flowing conversation.

"Family Matters NY"-smart, informative, warm, open and inclusive.

Join The American Fertility Association on October 5th for a day that could help change your life.
